3 DAY AMAZON TRIP

TARAPOTO

explore the forest day and night

Day 1

Embark on an adventure of a lifetime, starting at the vibrant Malecón of Leticia at 8:40 am! Join us as we board a boat for an exciting 87-kilometer journey along the mighty Amazon River. Our first stop is the car-free town of Puerto Nariño, nestled in pristine forests. Brace yourself for a day filled with wonder as we explore the forest around the town on a walking tour guided by a skilled hunter, embark on a thrilling night walk into the woods. You'll cap off the day with a night's stay in Eware hotel in Puerto Nariño.

Day 2

we'll reach Peruvian Cacao Island, an untouched forest teaming with diverse wildlife like sloths in their habit. We'll marvel at the massive trees and learn about their unique properties. In the afternoon we will go in a day and night boat trip with a experienced fishermen exploring the Tarapoto Lake Systema and Natural reserve, due its mega-biodiversity. Guided by a skilled hunter, we'll venture into the woods, recreating a traditional hunting experience that lasts through the night. Setting up camp using hammocks and mosquito net amidst lush foliage, we'll immerse ourselves in the enchanting ambiance of the Amazon jungle, surrounded by nocturnal sounds.

Day 3

We'll spend the last day of the tour swimming in the Amazon River and watching dolphins in their natural habitat. we willl do kayaking in traditional canoes like the locals do. After a lunch we will take the boat to the indigenous community Amacayacu.

INCLUDES:

- River Transportations
- Camp gear
- Local and native guides with English interpreter
- Access to the communities, reserves.
- Ruber boots.
- 3 daily meals during the circuit

GONE AMAZONAS RNT 79239